

Numerology and The Tarot

By Jeff Dull

Using your birthday you can give you some personal insight into your personality and life.

First lets determine your personality and soul cards, you do this by adding up your date of birth like this:

$$2+25+1963=1990$$

Then you add these numbers together:

$1+9+9+0=19$ = The Sun,
then I add $1+9=10$ = The Wheel of Fortune, and then $1+0=1$ =The Magician.

Note: If your number adds up to more than 22 add the numbers together until you get a number less than 22.

The first number is your personality number (those who know me will always say I have such a sunny personality). The second number is your soul number (I'm a rambling gambling man). With those who have three numbers such as I, all three are interchangeable as soul and personality cards (it only happens as a 19,10,1).

For those who only come up with one number, this is both your personality and soul card.

You can also determine your year card by adding your birth day and month to the current year $2+25+2009=2036=2+0+3+6=11$ (Justice), $1+1=2$ (the High Priestess).

This would mean for example that I should examine what is happening in my life and see if it is the result of a form of Karmic justice. And I should get more in touch with my spiritual side at the same time.
