Negation: Our past can be broken down into four parts. Each one of these has misinformation that lingers in our subconscious. Find these four items and you will see what is holding you back.

Beginning: We must find the hidden influences, signs and whispers before we can progress. Here we find information about our psychic path, but we must be willing to listen for the whispers.

What is missing? The final card, card 15 – information we are missing:

The spread:

This is the time of the year when the information we need can be heard – if only we have the ability to hear the whispers. This spread offers us the opportunity to find out information that we need to close one cycle, and the information we need to begin the new. In addition there is, like the hidden T on the scroll of The High Priestess, one vital piece of information we did not recognize, or wish to acknowledge, that will become the most important link in our progress.

It is the duality of our lives that this spread tries to explain. The dark and the light, the present and the past, action and inaction; we cannot have one without the other. This spread is about the information we do not know to ask, and the information we need.
